

6. Work Health Safety Policy

Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd, is firm in being a leader in the construction industry for Work Health and Safety management and performance. Our objective is that Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd health and safety goals is effectively communicated, understood and implemented in a consistent manner making sure that the message of "People are Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd most important asset" and their health and safety is Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd greatest responsibility and the public shall be given equal priority to that of Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd employees.

Central to the success of Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd safety and health management is dependent on Pro-active planning of all work activities with due consideration given to implementing WHS controls that are suitable to each given situation. Business culture is satisfying legislative compliance and a commitment to the health and safety of employees, subcontractors and everyone who visits Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd work areas.

Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd is committed to achieving this by:

- Complying with all applicable laws, regulations, standards, codes and other requirements including client requirements relating to health and safety issues;
- Maintaining, monitoring, reviewing, inspecting, auditing and continually improving the Work Health and Safety Management System and programs consistent with the legislation and customer requirements.
- Establishing and continually developing education systems and training;
- Ensuring consistent health and safety practices across all work sites by incorporating Risk management principles;
- Provide sufficient and suitable resources to implement and maintain the Integrated Management System (incorporating Work Health and Safety Management);
- Committing to regular consultation and communication to workers;
- Establishing and reviewing meaningful and accurate health and safety performance measures and targets as a means of eliminating work related injury and illness as far as reasonably practicable and ensuring continual improvement;
- Monitoring and evaluating the health and safety performance of subcontractors and implementing effective communication with them on health and safety and compliance issues.
- Ensuring all incidents and near misses are reported and action taken to prevent recurrence.
- Southern Cross Heavy Haulage Pty Ltd, is committed to maintaining a healthy and safe workplace across all work sites. Protecting the client representatives, public, visitors and property/assets.

Director / Manager		Date	14/01/20
--------------------	---	------	----------